Executive Summary

Nigerian Stock Market closed the month of April 2021 in the green zone as market witnessed renewed bargain hunting as against negative posture recorded in the previous month of March 2021. The NSEASI inched up by +2.02% as against -1.90% loss recorded in the month of March 2021 while the NASD USI closed northwards with +5.74% gain recorded at the end of the month under review as against +4.64% gain in March 2021.

YTD, the NSEASI ended the month under review in the negative territory with -1.08% loss while the NASD USI closed northwards with +7.76%.

On market development, regulation and investors protection, the Securities and Exchange Commission released an amendment to its rule on sub-brokers. This amendment recognized the creation of a new sub-section called "Sub-broker Serving Multiple Brokers Through a Digital Platform" and it is expected to help regulate the activities of the fintech platforms engaging in market related activities in conjunction with registered CMOs.

Furthermore, it also created a new rule (Rule 76) on risk management which all sub-brokers using digital platforms are expected to comply with. The amendments and the new rule can be accessed here.

Also, the Nigerian Exchange Group, during the month under review, announced the completion of its demutualisation exercise along with the CEOs of the various entities that emerged. Following this, the new corporate brands of the various entities have been made public and the new share of the NGX admitted to trade on the NASD OTC Exchange.

In an attempt to protect the 31m costumers and the minority shareholders of First Bank, the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) removed the boards of the bank and its parent company (FBN Holdings Plc) due to the announcement of the bank to replace its Managing Director, Dr Sola Adeduntan, without the prior knowledge and approval of the CBN. The decision of the sacked board of First Bank has been reversed by the CBN as Dr Sola Adeduntan has been re-instated while independent analysis on the CBN action on the bank can be accessed here.

Free Float Deficiencies

Companies listed on The Exchange must maintain a minimum free float for the set standards under which they are listed in order to ensure that there is an orderly and liquid market in their securities.

The free float requirement for companies on the Main Board is 20% and 15% for ASEM companies. The Exchange has identified three companies that have free float deficiencies.

These companies applied for waivers from the Quotations Committee of Management specifically provided compliance plans with tentative timelines to support their requests.

The Quotations Committee of Management considered and approved an extended timeframe for the companies to regain compliance with the listing requirement. The companies are however required to also provide quarterly disclosure reports to The Exchange detailing their level of implementation of the compliance plans.

Advice to Users of this Report

Proshare Nigeria, founded in December 2006, is Nigeria's No. 1 and most trusted online financial hub dedicated to serving as a critical bridge between financial markets and economic stakeholders. Proshare is a multiple award-winning and professionally run research, data, news, and analysis services firm with eight distinct practice areas – economy, business, markets, regulators, technology, MSME, personal finance, and media.

Practice Ethos and Disclaimer

Proshare does not guarantee any economic outcome based on the information contained in this report. Although we have used our best efforts to provide the most accurate information, we cannot promise your future profitability or any other economic gain and do not promise verbally or in writing that you will earn a profit or any other gain when or if you use the information contained therein; or take the actions that might have been prescribed here by the author, our analysts or available on www.proshareng.com.

Decisions taken based on a reading of this report ultimately represent the exclusive choice and responsibility of the reader. There is a risk of loss in taking both economic and financial market decisions based on independent analysis. It should be noted that past performance is not necessarily a good guide to future economic outlooks, therefore, decisions formed based on past performance may prove to be inaccurate or wrong.

What You Can Do:

You are given the unlimited right to read, download and print this report and to distribute it electronically (via email, your website, or any other means). You can print out pages and use them in your private discussion groups as long as you acknowledge Proshare and you do not alter the material in any way. Most importantly, you should not charge for it.

We encourage academicians, market and economy analysts, and investors alike to send in completed data-backed and evidence-based research materials on topics relevant to building a virile economy to us at info@proshareng.com. If approved for publishing, we will subject it to the same terms and conditions applicable to information developed by Proshare. We retain the rights however to edit the submission as applicable to conform to practice ethics and market decorum/regulations.
